

dad madw ran harw haryw ranapat l masas 3sir

masas warw. mi warw ntya titw nan h3p, s3k nasan. masas 3sir, masas har, masas sataš, masas 3sat, masas nabat hwt. rakas ranw na harw ma h3w har diw nan hakar, nan ibi, nan sahar b3sat af, nan 3kaf ma rwyat war, nan maniaf har harwya na naswt har nan maniaf haridw na ranapat. w3ahaf ra nab ra sapar 3w, nan t3araf 3hw. mi ntya rakaf ranw na harw ma haw diw, waq3af. madwaf warar, sadam ma hafat har r.

han harw nab s'k r harat ib. dabahaf saman na habwak pan, hatap pan, ir nahak ma s3 r p3-nab-t3wya. radaf matar š3 r satwt r ra w nab har tahwak hafat m33af san h'pya b'hi hafat t3wya k3 imanatat iaman ranaf ra maswaf, mwataf. h3 imya swnwaf, ran harw pan h3gasw hamaf hamwaf.

Recitation of the name of Days Above the Year I – Birth of Osiris

The Great Ones are born.

As the Great ones whose forms are not mysterious, be wary of them...Birth of A'sir (Osiris), Birth of Har (Horus), Birth of Satash (Seth), Birth of A'sat (Isis), Birth of Nabat-Hwt (Nephthys).

Anyone who knows the names of the five additional days is not hungry, not thirsty.

Ba'sat (Bast) does not overthrow him. He will not enter into the great law court; he will not die through an enemy of the Pharaoh and will not die through the pestilence of the year.

He endures every day till death arrives, no illness will take possession of him.

As to he who knows the names of the five additional days, he is prosperous.

His speech is important, heard in the presence of Rē.

Together with every day of appearing at his wish. He asks after the state corresponding to the establishing of these your festivals, these benefits, made for you by the son of ra, pa'nab-ta'wy. Grant him renown as far as ra's rays shine to everyone, and you rejoice at seeing him, as Hapi, when he inundated the Two Lands.

Bull of the West whose name is hidden from his children, his mother. the Combative fish who is in his pool. The name of this day is h3gašw who does not know his oar.